DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. This action is in response to the amendment dated 5/15/06. Claims 1-43 and 56-57 were cancelled.
2. The 35 USC 102 and 103(a) rejections that were set forth in the non-final office action mailed on 9/29/05 to reject original claim 1 have been withdrawn in light of the present amendment, which presents independent claim 44 in place of original claim 1.

Double Patenting

3. The obviousness-type double patenting rejections set forth in paragraphs 27-30 of the non-final office action mailed on 9/29/05 using US PAT 6,932,883 have been withdrawn in light of the present amendment.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

With respect to claim 44, one having ordinary skill in the art would have appreciated it being known in a variety of arts to laminate/bond at least two substrates using a heating apparatus (i.e. platen/platens) that has a heating element(s) and a sensor(s), which can be attached to the heating apparatus, for measuring the temperature of the heating apparatus/element(s) and feeding this information back to a control system which then adjusts the temperature of the heating apparatus/element(s) so as to maintain a desired temperature throughout the laminating/bonding process (see US 3624836, US 6413334, US 6391133, US 6056841, US 5369246).

However, the prior art fails to teach or suggest a method for making a glued-together screen assembly wherein the sensors of the heating apparatus sense temperatures of different portions of the at least one layer of screening material during heating thereof and then in response to these sensed temperatures the control system controls the heating elements of the heating apparatus to control heat applied to different portions of the at least one layer of screening material during heating thereof.

5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
